Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- a. Embodiment of the invention directed to learning tasks, skill levels and curriculum development (claims 6-25, 55-57, and 65)
- b. Embodiment of the invention directed to a support system and the adjustment thereof (26-47, and 58-61)
- c. Embodiment of the invention drawn to the storing of responses and report generation (claims 48-53, 62 and 63)

The species of A-C are further related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, the invention of species A could be used as part of a translations system for foreign languages, the invention of species B could be used in a context sensitive help environment and the invention of species C could be used in an electronic grade book program. See MPEP § 806.05(d) and 806.04(b).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-5, 54, 64 and 66 are generic. These claims being drawn to a generic method and system for instruction.

2. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 3713

3. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
4. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
6. Additionally applicant is requested to review claim dependencies for accuracy. There appear to be several instances where a claim was accidentally made dependent from an inappropriate base claim. For example claim 7 is listed as dependent on claim 12 and claim 38 appears to list dependency on both claims 37 and 32. This request is made to expedite the prosecution of the elected claims.
